

The cases of homicide had decreased over the period of time. 30.96% of the total cases occurred from 1980-1990.

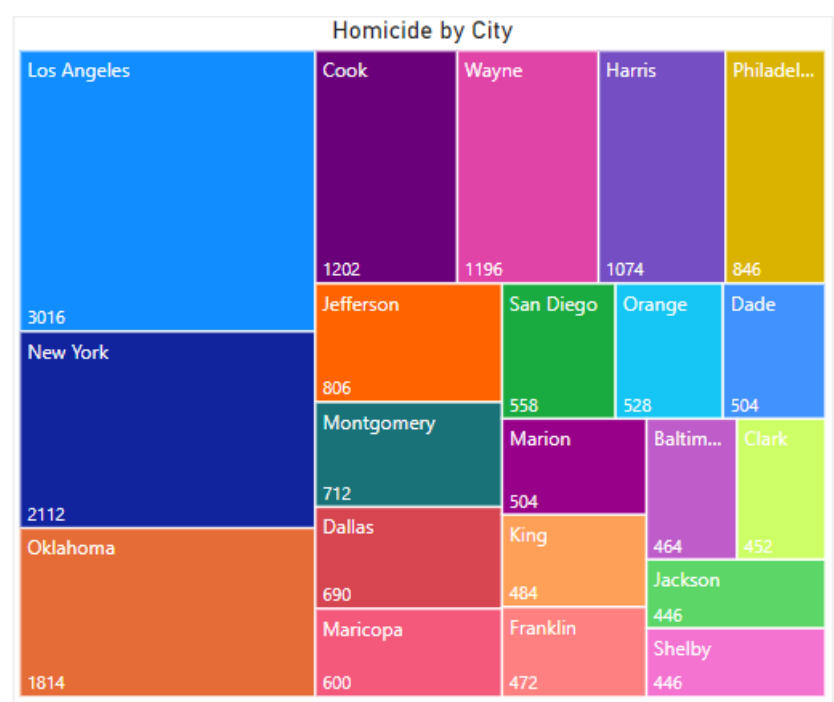

Over the years, maximum homicides occurred in the month of April

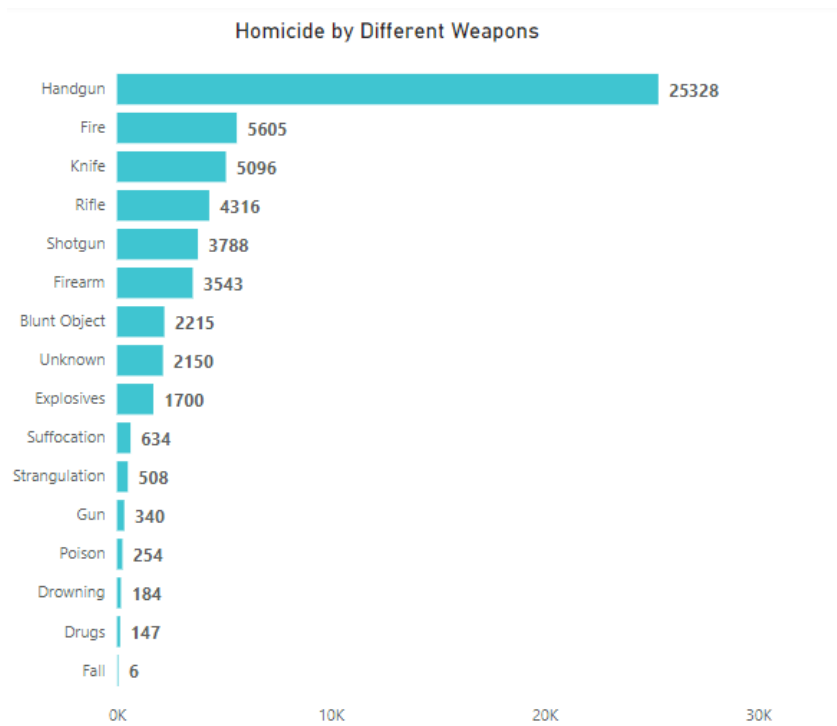

The state of California reported the greatest number of homicide cases followed by Texas.

Top 20 cities with highest count of Victim

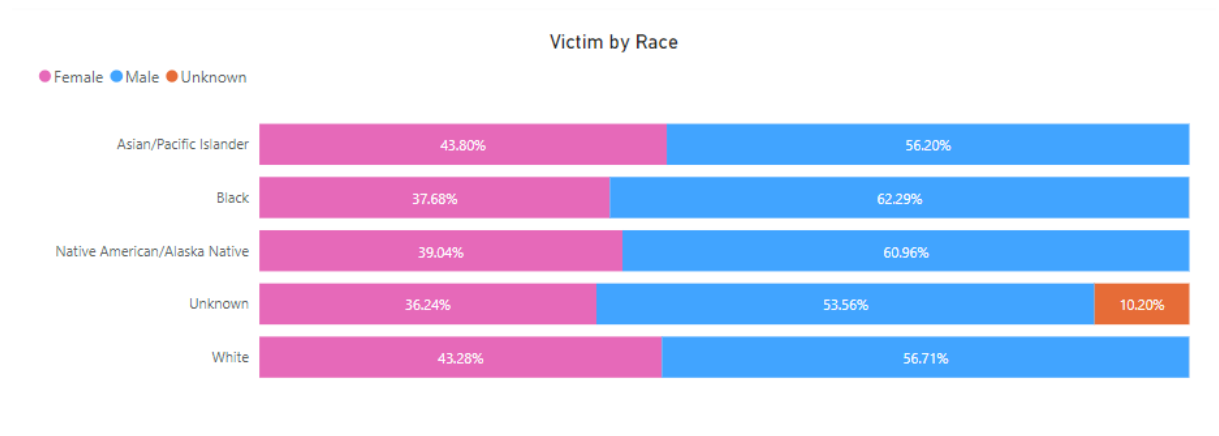

Handgun accounted for 45.38% of the total homicides

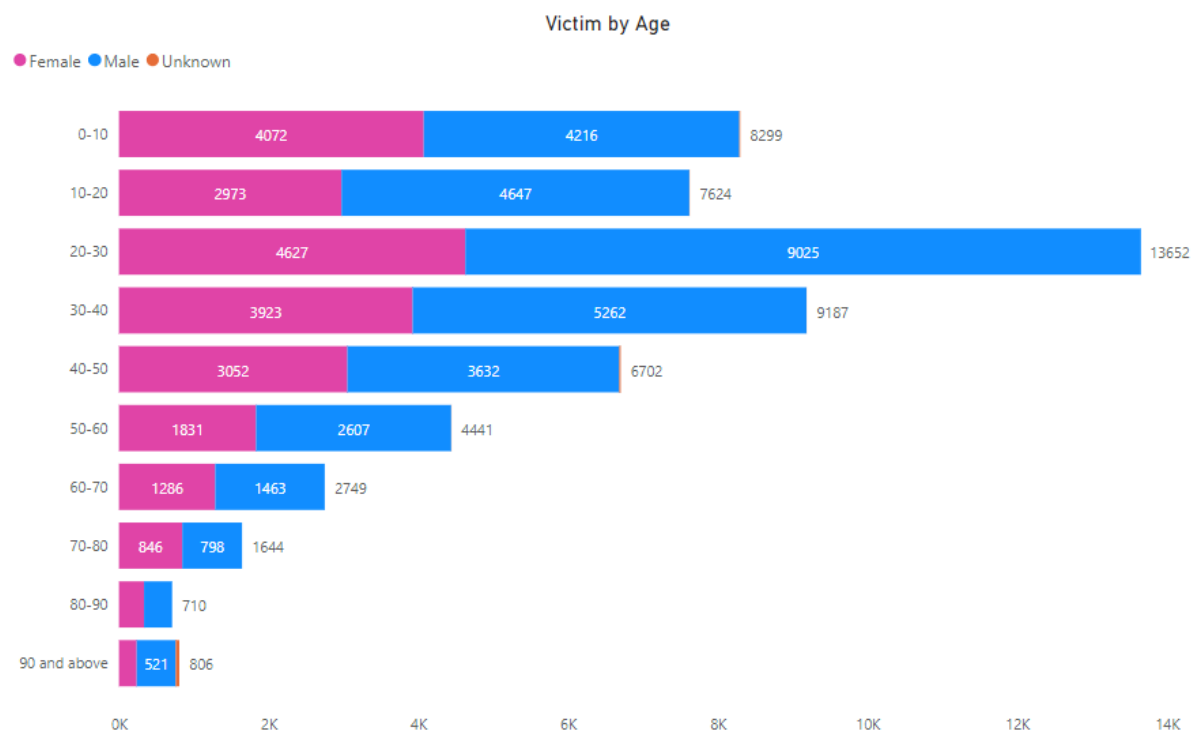

People acquainted with the perpetrator accounted for 23.22% of total victim count

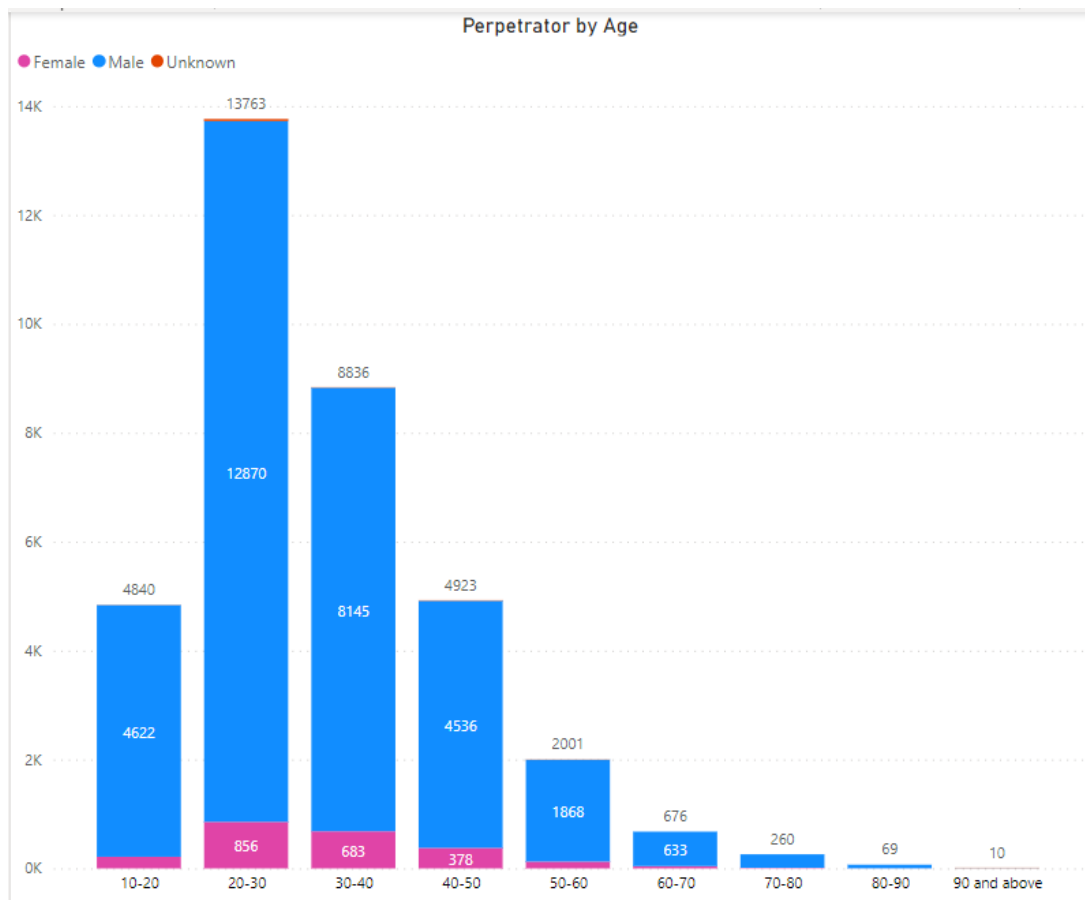

Most of the victim of homicides were white male and made up 37.03% of total victim count. Also, most of the homicides were against males which accounted for 32546 of total reported cases.

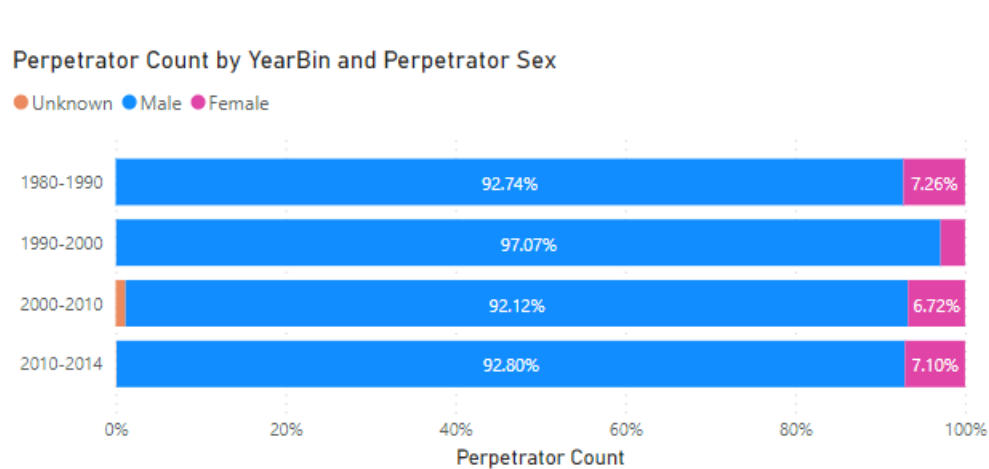

Most of the victims age lie in the range 20-30 that made up 16.17% of total Victim Count.

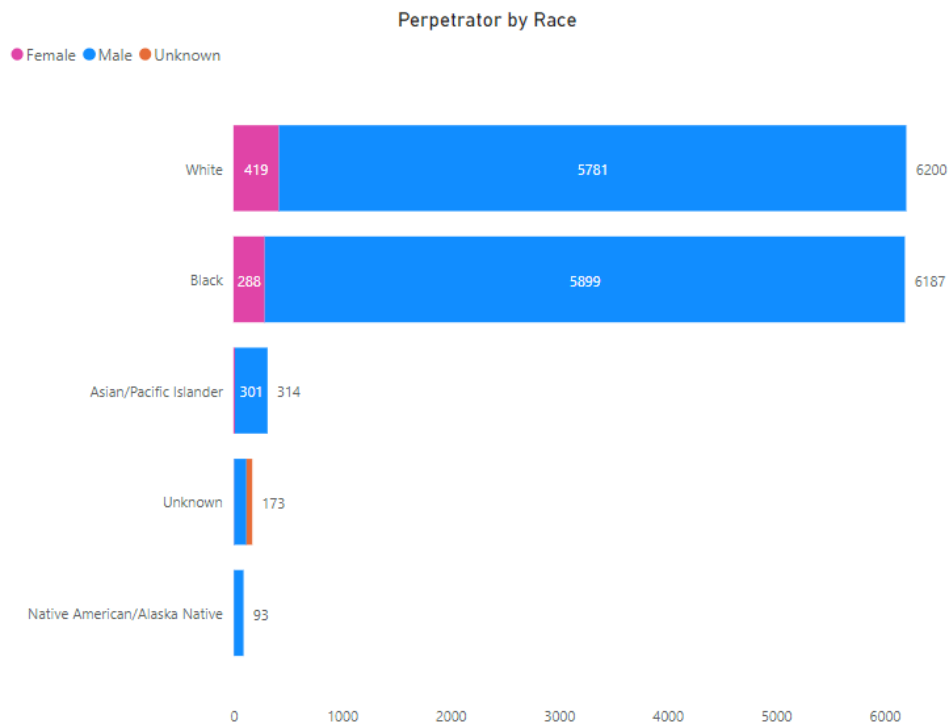

Among the perpetrators, male had the highest total count of 32994 followed by female at 2314. The age range 20-30 accounts for 36.38% of the total perpetrators.

It could be seen that throughout the years, male accounted for the maximum count of perpetrators. 1990-2000 made up 31.7% of the total count.

Male had the highest total Perpetrator Count at 12184, followed by Female at 730.

It could be seen that over the years maximum perpetrators were in the age range 20-30.

